

My beloved tree

(von Francesca Buri / www.francescaburi.ch)

My oh my you are so beautiful
My oh my beloved tree
Oh dear guardian of my secret dreams
In my garden you're shining so green

Thousands of lights are dancing in your embrace Calling the magic out of the place
In the morning when I turn my face
First thing I see is your grace

And then suddenly I feel calmness trust and comfort in my soul
And I can feel that deep inside me there's a space of constant joy

And all I want is to praise forward mother earth and the whole,
And all I want is to praise forward mother earth and the whole,
whole holy life
Holy holy life
Oh yeah whole holy life
Holy holy life

My oh my you are so beautiful
My oh my beloved tree
Connecting mother earth and heaven
You're so precious and dear to me

And then suddenly I feel calmness trust and comfort in my soul
And I can feel that deep inside me there's a space of silent joy

And all I want is to praise forward mother earth and the whole
whole holy life
holy holy life
oh yeah holy holy life
holy holy life

holy life...
And all I want is to praise forward....
