(von Francesca Buri / www.francescaburi.ch)

You are my little one
You are my lovely one
You are my beloved child
You're my sun and rain in one

And I'm so glad that I have you here next to me
And I'm so glad that I have you here right beside me

And you are my little one
And you are my lovely one
And you are my beloved child (my my love, my my love)
You're my sun and rain in one

*And I want, I try to be the best that I can be for you
And I want, I try to do the best that I can do for you
And I am maybe not the perfect mother, I know that I am not
But you should know my love that you are always deep deep in my heart*

Lalalalalalalalalalalalala....

You are my little one
You are my lovely one
You are my beloved child
You are my sun and rain

When I feel your warm soft hands on my ears, everytime you wanna go to sleep
When I see you running on your little feet, I feel the love so deep

And I'm so glad that I have you here right beside me
And I'm so glad that I have you here next to me

*And I want, I try to be the best that I can be for you
And I want, I try to do the best that I can do for you
And I am maybe not the perfect mother, I know that I am not
But you should know my love, that you are always deep deep in my heart
Nananana nananana nananana
And i want to, and I try to, be the best that I can be for you*

*And i want to, and I try to, do the best that I can do for you...
And I am maybe not the perfect mother, I know that I am not
But you should know my love, that you are always deep deep in my heart*
