

Thank you

(von Francesca Buri / www.francescaburi.ch)

Thank you for your strength, your patience thank you for your honesty and thank you for your light, your power, thank you for your integrity

Thank you for your love that is stronger than any love I've lived before thanking you for giving me back the feeling that i am secure

Yeeeeee, yeeee

Thank you for the tenderness, thanking you for more and for less thanking you for sharing your life with me, with me...

Thank you for your joyful being, thank you for your selflessness and thank you for your generous dealing, with everyone who needs your help

Thank you for being this marvelous father to our beloved child finally finally i can feel the things become more light

*And inspite of all our differences and in spite of many fights
I know it will be always worth a try when it's about to know out hearts*

Thank you for the tenderness, thanking you for more and for less thanking you for sharing your life with me
